

Each column of five holes in a bank is one node; legs are E B C, left to right.